9 December 1955

SUBJECT: Guerrilla Warfare Conference (U)

TO: PARTICIPANTS

1. Reference letter AGAM-P(N) 337 (22 Sep 55) PsyWar, DA, 30 September 1955, subject as above.

2. The purpose of this letter is to provide additional information to conferees scheduled to attend the Guerrilla Warfare Conference to be held at Fort Bragg, North Carolina, during the period 9 - 13 January 1956. The following inclosures are attached:

- a. Tentative schedule of events (Incl 1).
- b. Tentative list of conferees (Incl 2).
- c. Tentative list of items for panel discussion (Incl 3).

3. It is suggested that conferees plan to arrive at Fort Bragg, North Carolina, on Sunday, 8 January 1956 so that quartering and bill-leting arrangements may be completed prior to the scheduled beginning of the conference at 0900 hours, 9 January 1956.

4. A Special Mission Aircraft (Constellation or Convair) will depart Bolling Field, Washington, D. C., at 1430 hours Sunday, 8 January and will arrive at Fort Bragg, North Carolina, approximately 1630 hours. It is suggested that all conferees who can conveniently utilize this aircraft contact Lt Col Thrasher or Lt Col Hancock at Liberty 5-6700, x52350 for reservations. It is believed that many of the conferees from overseas stations would find this aircraft to be a convenient means of travel between Washington and Fort Bragg. The Special Mission Aircraft will return to Washington at the conclusion of the conference on 13 January 1956, departing Fort Bragg at 1430 hours and arriving in Washington at approximately 1630 hours. It is suggested that all orders issued for attending the conference authorize travel by military aircraft.

5. Reference is made to Inclosure Number 1, Tentative Schedule of Events, wherein individual conferees and theater representatives have been scheduled to make oral presentations to the conference. It is requested that the Senior Theater Representative of each theater coordinate the presentation for his theater. Additionally, in order to enable the inclusion of these presentations in the Report of Conference, it is requested that a verbatim transcript be available for turn in following each presentation. Projection equipment will be available for these presentations, if required.

6. Panel Organization.

a. Each conferee is requested to select the panel on which he is best qualified to serve, to prepare himself for such participation, and to notify Office Chief of Psychological Warfare, Washington 25, D. C. (Training Section, Liberty 5-6700, x52350) of his selection. If impracticable to indicate this preference prior to arriving in the United States, conferees may indicate choice of panel membership upon signing in at Fort Bragg, N. C.

b. Any panelist may present appropriate items for discussion other than those listed in the tentative list of items for panel discussion (Inclosure No. 3).

c. It is expected that panel moderators will revise the tentative agenda for each panel as the first order of business when each panel is convened so as to determine the priority of items to be discussed and to include any appropriate items which may be presented by panel members.

7. Participants traveling independently to the conference by public transportation are requested to notify Col William H. Kinard, Jr., Psychological Warfare Center Headquarters, Fort Bragg, North Carolina of their time of arrival and mode of transportation so that meeting arrangements may be made.

8. Upon arrival at Fort Bragg participants should report to Normandy House, Fort Bragg Officers Open Mess for billeting and processing.
